Il Divo

Monday 2nd April 2012 2 Days £155

As a further mark of success to their voices & unique operatic arrangements spearheading an entire musical genre over the past 7 years, today the world's foremost classical crossover group IL DIVO announce a massive 4th world tour for 2012, set to travel across 6 continents.

The first leg of the tour to be announced, will see this phenomenal quartet- Carlos Marin, Sebastien Izambard, David Miller and Urs Buhler – perform at leading venues across Europe and the UK, including a spectacular return to the Metro Radio Arena, Newcastle. Their most recent 'An Evening With Il Divo' tour which spanned most of 2009, saw sold out shows across 130 cities and the group receive Billboard's Breakthrough Award for one of the biggest grossing tours of the year.

"Il Divo is the perfect modern fusion of opera, theatre and concert performance. It is a privilege as a director to create a visual landscape inviting the audience on a theatrical journey of their music" Brian Burke, Creative Director

In the UK & Europe, 28th November 2011, will see Il Divo return with their 5th studio album 'Wicked Game' including a dramatic reworking of the Chris Isaak classic 'Wicked Game', an emotionally beautiful rendering of Roy Orbison's 'Crying' and a heavenly song inspired by Samuel Barber's 'Adagio for Strings' called 'Dove L'Amore'. Il Divo could rest on their laurels. But that has never been their style. Their story continues to evolve and 'Wicked Game' is a very exciting new chapter they look forward to doing what they love best, by taking it on the road to the world.
