Following the spectacular live sell out shows 'Torvill and Dean's Dancing on Ice' is back and as glamorous as ever..... Returning for it's 6th year, this ice spectacle will feature all the thrills, spills and sensational ice dancing you've come to expect from the line up of celebrity skaters and professionals! Add to this some absolutely stunning professional routines and a tension packed dance off finale makes this a family show that you can't afford to miss!! Once again, the audience will be invited to vote on the night for your favourite celebrity, making YOU part of the show! All of the celebrities will be trained and choreographed by Torvill & Dean, who will also perform several of their favourite routines at each performance. At each performance the audience will have a chance to vote for their favourite skating celebrity. Replicating the format of the hit ITV1 show, they will be able to use their mobile phones to text vote for their favourite dancing couple. The audience votes will then be added to the scores from the Judges to decide the winner. Once the votes have been counted, the winning celebrity will join their skating partner to perform a magical finale. We will confirm the line up of professional skaters for the 2012 tour shortly. Keep checking back for details...
