MURDER at LUMLEY CASTLE

Murder by Candlelight, Raby Castle & The Maritime Experience

Sunday 30th September 2012 · 2 Days · Only £149

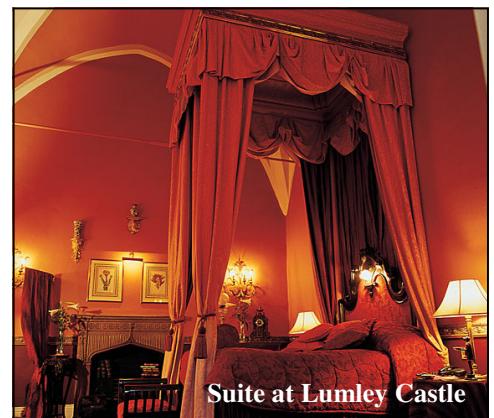

On Halloween 1903 a murder took place in the sinister surroundings of Lumley Castle....

Was it the ambitious landowner Jack Horner? The cunning Lady Lily? The scheming Sir Ralph or the plotting maid Dinah? You are invited to take part in a re-enactment of the crime scene during an evening of festivities at the historic castle. Can you solve the murder?

This magnificently preserved castle dates back to the 14th century. Now a magnificent hotel, the unexpected surrounds you at Lumley Castle and it promises an unforgettable and unique experience. The accommodation is regal, the service discreet and from the moment you arrive at the softly lit, dramatically draped reception you realise that this is no ordinary hotel. www.lumleycastle.com

Included in the price of this fantastic weekend -

- 1 night in majestic Lumley Castle – Consistently refurbished over the ages, the castle has been lovingly transformed into an International Class hotel, offering an exciting blend of history and modern luxury. Accommodation will be in the appealing courtyard rooms although castle rooms are available at a small supplement. Every one of the bedrooms is unique –from the genuine Queen Ann four poster in the King James' Suite to the old cottage charm of the courtyard quarters. Each of the courtyard rooms is individually furnished and decorated and has an en-suite bathroom, television and refreshments tray.
- Murder Mystery by Candlelight- Take part in a re-enactment of a murder that took place in the castle 100 years ago and help solve the crime! Included is a delicious three course meal and a drink upon arrival.
- Historic Raby Castle - Home to Lord Barnard's family since 1626, Raby is one of the finest medieval Castle's in England. Built by the mighty Nevill family in the 14th Century, Raby remained in the Nevill family until 1569 when after the failure of the Rising of the North, the Castle and its lands were forfeited to the Crown. In 1626, Sir Henry Vane the Elder purchased Raby and the Castle has remained in the Vane family ever since. Every room in Raby Castle, from the magnificent Barons' Hall, where 700 knights gathered to plot the 'Rising of the North', to the Mediaeval Kitchen which was used until 1954, gives an insight to life throughout the ages.
- Teesside Maritime Experience & HMS Trincomalee - Hartlepool's Maritime Experience, (formerly known as Hartlepool Historic Quay) is a superb re-creation of an 18th century seaport and a fantastic place to visit. It brings to life the time of Nelson, Napoleon and the Battle of Trafalgar. HMS Trincomalee is the oldest British warship still afloat. Take a tour onboard and discover the fascinating history of Nelsons last Frigate.
- Dinner, Breakfast and Monday late lunch
- Coach travel throughout - Departure from Pudsey, Leeds, Wetherby, Bradford, Huddersfield - Escorted by tour manager
